

EBS University of Business and Law is a leading international Business School in Germany. The University currently has two faculties, EBS Business School and EBS Law School. EBS offers a unique network, excellence in research and teaching, and a strong international dimension. We aim to inspire personalities and we maintain a strong focus on responsibility and sustainability.

The Institute of Supply Chain Management - Procurement and Logistics (ISCM) undertakes research on cutting-edge topics from the fields of purchasing, logistics and supply chain management in cooperation with its worldwide network of scientists and together with partners from academia and the business world. In the course of its dynamic expansion in the area of Logistics and Supply Chain Management, the Institute for Supply Chain Management - Procurement and Logistics is partner in cooperation with Deutsche Bahn (DB) and Russian Railways (RZD). Together with the railway companies, the Graduate School of Management at St. Petersburg State University and the St. Petersburg State Transport University, the ISCM has established the "Center for International Logistics and Supply Chain Management" in St. Petersburg. The Center is based at the Graduate School of Management.

The EBS University of Business and Law invites applications for a position of

Professor of Logistics and Supply Chain Management

The vacancy will be filled from 1 July 2012 for five years.

S/he will work and live in St. Petersburg. S/he will head the "Center for International Logistics and Supply Chain Management" that is staffed with an Associate Professor, several lecturers, PhD students and an assistant. S/he will have strategic responsibility for the center and will be in charge of building and nurturing the academic profile of the center, both in Russia and on an international level. In addition, s/he will be responsible for further developing the center's research and education.

Applicants are expected to meet the following requirements:

- Know-how in Supply Chain Management, Transport and Logistics - preferably also Railway Logistics
- International experience
- Academic excellence, demonstrated through a strong record of publications in international peer-reviewed journals
- Experience in teaching graduate programs in logistics, supply chain management and related fields
- English (fluent in spoken and written)
- Preferably Russian language skills
- Strategic thinking and leadership skills
- Strong and convincing personality
- Outstanding communication skills and negotiation skills

Your application package should contain a:

- Cover letter and detailed CV
- Copy of doctoral Certificate (or equivalent documentation in regard to academic status)
- A list of publications and/or working papers
- One or two current research papers
- Documents supporting research, administrative and teaching qualifications

Ideally, your application package should also include your future research agenda, your teaching concept as well as relevant course evaluations.

Applications (preferably by email) should be sent to:

Prof. Dr. Michael Henke

EBS Universität für Wirtschaft und Recht

Institute for Supply Chain Management - Procurement and Logistics

Konrad-Adenauer-Ring 15

65187 Wiesbaden, GERMANY

Phone +49 611 7102 2100

michael.henke@ebs.edu